Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Kathmandu - Dolakha - Kalinchowk

Your journey begins early in the morning from Kathmandu with a beautiful drive through green hills, rivers, and traditional villages. The changing landscapes make the journey peaceful and refreshing.

On the way, you will visit the sacred Dolakha Bhimsen Temple. This holy temple is an important pilgrimage site where travelers come to seek blessings and positive energy. After a short visit and prayer, the journey continues toward the Kalinchowk region.

You will then drive up to Kuri Village, surrounded by mountains and fresh mountain air. From here, enjoy a short and pleasant hike to reach your mountain lodge. The evening is calm and peaceful, perfect to relax and enjoy the cold Himalayan atmosphere.

Overnight stay: Kuri Village

Day 2: Kalinchowk - Sailung - Kathmandu

Early in the morning, you will experience a magical sunrise from Kalinchowk. The golden light over the mountains creates an unforgettable moment of peace and beauty.

You will visit the sacred Kalinchowk Bhagwati Temple, a powerful spiritual site located at high altitude. On clear days, you can also enjoy breathtaking views of the Himalayan ranges.

For those who wish, there is an optional cable car ride or short hike in the morning to reach the temple area, adding a touch of adventure to the experience.

After breakfast, the journey continues toward Sailung, a peaceful hill known for its natural beauty and wide landscapes.

At Sailung, you will enjoy stunning views of rolling green hills and distant snow-capped mountains. The calm environment makes it a perfect place to connect with nature and enjoy the moment.

Later, you will drive back to Kathmandu with beautiful memories of a short but meaningful journey filled with nature, culture, and spirituality.
