Tour Overview

The Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour - 1 Night 2 Days is a perfect blend of luxury, adventure, and Himalayan exploration, designed for travelers who want to experience the Everest region without the physical demands of trekking. This exclusive journey takes you from Kathmandu to Lukla by airplane and deep into the heart of the Khumbu region by private helicopter, offering spectacular views of the world's highest mountains within a short timeframe.

This carefully crafted tour includes a scenic mountain flight to Lukla, a private helicopter ride to the iconic Everest View Hotel, breakfast with panoramic Himalayan views, a landing at Kala Patthar (5,545m), and an unforgettable aerial tour over the legendary Everest Base Camp and Khumbu Glacier. Unlike a one-day helicopter tour, this package allows you to spend a night in Lukla, giving you additional time to experience the unique atmosphere of the Everest region and enjoy a more relaxed travel experience.

Throughout the journey, you'll witness breathtaking views of Mount Everest (8,848.86m), Lhotse (8,516m), Nuptse (7,861m), Ama Dablam (6,812m), Pumori (7,161m), Thamserku (6,608m), Kongde Ri (6,187m), and countless other

Himalayan peaks. Whether you're a luxury traveler, photographer, honeymooner, family, or adventure enthusiast, this tour offers one of the most memorable ways to experience the Everest region in comfort and style.

Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Kathmandu (1,350m) - Lukla (2,860m) - Everest View Hotel (3,880m) - Kala Patthar (5,545m) - Everest Base Camp Aerial Tour - Lukla (2,860m)

Your Himalayan adventure begins early in the morning with a pickup from your hotel in Kathmandu and transfer to the domestic airport. After completing airport procedures, board a scenic flight to Lukla, which takes approximately 35 to 40 minutes. During the flight, enjoy magnificent views of Nepal's diverse landscapes, including green hills, river valleys, traditional villages, and the towering Himalayan range. You will be witnessing how the aerial view of mountain look alike.

Upon arriving at Lukla, the gateway to the Everest region, you will board a private helicopter for an extraordinary flight into the heart of the Khumbu Valley. The helicopter journey to Everest View Hotel takes approximately 15 to 20 minutes and offers incredible aerial views of Sherpa settlements, alpine forests, suspension bridges, and snow-capped mountains.

After landing at Everest View Hotel (3,880m), enjoy a delicious breakfast while admiring panoramic views of Mount Everest and surrounding peaks. This world-famous hotel provides one of the most remarkable dining experiences in the Himalayas, allowing guests to enjoy luxury and comfort amidst spectacular mountain scenery.

Following breakfast, continue your helicopter journey to Kala Patthar (5,545m), the most celebrated viewpoint in the Everest region. Here, you'll witness the closest and most breathtaking views of Mount Everest, along with the Khumbu Glacier, Nuptse, Pumori, and surrounding Himalayan giants. The dramatic landscape of ice, rock, and towering peaks creates an unforgettable experience and exceptional photography opportunities.

The adventure continues with an aerial sightseeing flight over the Everest Base Camp region. Flying above the legendary base camp, Khumbu Glacier, and Khumbu Icefall, you'll gain a unique perspective of the route followed by climbers attempting to summit Mount Everest. The stunning views from the helicopter offer a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to appreciate the grandeur of the Himalayas.

After completing the aerial tour, return to Lukla by helicopter and transfer to your lodge. Spend the evening exploring the charming mountain town, interacting with locals, and enjoying the peaceful atmosphere of the Everest region.

Overnight Stay: Lukla (2,860m)

Day 2: Lukla (2,860m) - Kathmandu (1,350m)

Wake up to beautiful Himalayan surroundings and enjoy breakfast in Lukla. After breakfast, transfer to Lukla Airport for your return flight to Kathmandu. The scenic flight takes approximately 35 to 40 minutes and provides one final opportunity to admire the spectacular Himalayan landscapes.

Upon arrival in Kathmandu, our representative will transfer you to your hotel. Your Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour - 1 Night 2 Days concludes with unforgettable memories of Mount Everest, Kala Patthar, Everest View Hotel, the Khumbu Glacier, and one of Nepal's most luxurious and rewarding Himalayan adventures.

This tour is ideal for travelers seeking a premium Everest experience, combining the thrill of helicopter sightseeing, luxury mountain hospitality, and breathtaking Himalayan panoramas within a short and comfortable itinerary.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour 1 Night 2 Days?

The Everest Base Camp Helicopter Tour 1 Night 2 Days is a luxury Himalayan adventure that combines a scenic flight to Lukla, a private helicopter tour to Everest View Hotel, Kala Patthar, and the Everest Base Camp region, followed by an overnight stay in Lukla before returning to Kathmandu.

Q: Do I need trekking experience for this tour?

No. This tour is designed for travelers who want to experience Mount Everest and the Everest region without trekking. No previous trekking experience is required.

Q: Why spend a night in Lukla?

An overnight stay in Lukla allows travelers to enjoy the unique atmosphere of the Everest region, reduce travel pressure, and experience the local Sherpa culture while enjoying a more relaxed itinerary.

Q: What is the highest point reached during the tour?

The highest point of the tour is Kala Patthar at 5,545 meters (18,192 feet), the most famous viewpoint for close-up panoramic views of Mount Everest.

Q: Can I land at Everest Base Camp?

Due to operational and safety considerations, helicopters generally land at Kala Patthar, which provides much better panoramic views of Mount Everest than Everest Base Camp itself. The tour includes an aerial flight over the Everest Base Camp region.

Q: What mountains can I see during the tour?

You can enjoy spectacular views of Mount Everest, Lhotse, Nuptse, Ama Dablam, Pumori, Thamserku, Kongde Ri, Kangtega, and many other Himalayan peaks.

Q: Is breakfast at Everest View Hotel included?

Yes. The package includes breakfast at Everest View Hotel, one of the world's highest luxury hotels, with incredible views of Everest and the surrounding mountains.

Q: How high is Everest View Hotel?

Everest View Hotel is situated at an altitude of 3,880 meters (12,729 feet) above sea level.

Q: Is this a private helicopter tour?

Yes. The helicopter portion of the tour is operated as a private charter, providing maximum comfort, flexibility, privacy, and personalized service.

Q: How long is the flight from Kathmandu to Lukla?

The flight from Kathmandu to Lukla typically takes approximately 35 to 40 minutes, depending on weather conditions.

Q: How long is the helicopter flight from Lukla to Everest View Hotel?

The helicopter flight from Lukla to Everest View Hotel takes approximately 15 to 20 minutes.

Q: Is altitude sickness a concern during the tour?

The short duration at higher elevations helps minimize altitude-related risks. However, travelers with pre-existing health concerns should consult their physician before participating.

Q: What is the best season for the Everest Helicopter Tour?

Spring (March to May) and autumn (September to November) provide the best mountain visibility and flying conditions. Winter also offers excellent views on clear days.

Q: What happens if the weather is unfavorable?

Mountain flights depend heavily on weather conditions. If flights cannot operate safely, the itinerary may be adjusted, postponed, or rescheduled according to availability and company policy.

Q: What type of accommodation is provided in Lukla?

Guests stay in a comfortable lodge or hotel in Lukla with modern amenities available in the region.

Q: What should I bring for the tour?

Warm layered clothing, sunglasses, sunscreen, gloves, a camera, comfortable footwear, personal medications, and travel documents are recommended.

Q: Is this tour suitable for senior travelers?

Yes. Since the tour involves minimal physical activity and no trekking, it is an excellent option for senior travelers who wish to experience Everest comfortably.

Q: Can children join the tour?

Yes. Children can join the tour when accompanied by parents or guardians.

Q: Will there be opportunities for photography?

Absolutely. Kala Patthar, Everest View Hotel, Lukla, and the Everest Base Camp region provide exceptional opportunities for mountain and landscape photography.

Q: Why choose a helicopter tour instead of the Everest Base Camp Trek?

This tour allows you to experience Everest, Kala Patthar, Everest View Hotel, and the Everest Base Camp region within two days while avoiding the physical demands and lengthy duration of a traditional trek.

Q: Is travel insurance required?

Yes. Comprehensive travel insurance covering helicopter travel, medical emergencies, and high-altitude activities is highly recommended.

Q: How many people can travel on the helicopter?

Passenger capacity depends on the helicopter type and altitude regulations. Private charters can be arranged for individuals, couples, families, and small groups.

There is 5 seat in our helicopter.

Q: What makes this tour unique?

The combination of a scenic flight to Lukla, breakfast at Everest View Hotel, landing at Kala Patthar, aerial sightseeing over Everest Base Camp, and an overnight stay in Lukla creates a more immersive Everest experience than standard day tours.

Q: Who is this tour best suited for?

This tour is ideal for luxury travelers, honeymooners, photographers, families, corporate guests, senior travelers, and anyone seeking a premium Everest experience within a short timeframe.

Q: Why book with Bridge Nepal Treks and Travels?

Bridge Nepal Treks and Travels offers reliable flight arrangements, experienced local expertise, personalized service, safety-focused operations, competitive pricing, and unforgettable luxury Himalayan adventures tailored to your needs.
